MORE THAN A MUSEUM,
CMEE IS A COMMUNITY HUB!

We provide nutritional, emotional, and educational support to East End families. Because of YOU, CMEE can reach the most vulnerable children in our community and enable them to do what they do best...PLAY, LEARN and THRIVE.

Food, Family and Learning: Nourishing Children Through CMEE’S Food Pantry
CMEE is proud to be one of few children’s museums across the nation to run a food pantry. We know that hungry children can’t play or learn, that’s why we distribute hundreds of pounds of groceries to over 100 local families every other week!

Cultivating a Lifelong Love of Reading with CMEE
This summer, CMEE launched a literacy tutoring program serving more than 40 local students, ages 5–12. Kids and reading mentors met twice a week using a specialized curriculum (along with CMEE’s own brand of love and play) to foster reading skills, self-confidence and strengthen peer-to-peer relationships. The summer program was funded by The Horace & Amy Hagedorn Fund and the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of the South Fork’s High Impact Community Outreach program, but we need your help to continue the program into next year!
Museums for All: Pioneering Access to Arts on the East End

Did you know that CMEE provided 750 free visits to families living at or below the poverty line this year? Now in its 7th year, CMEE is proud to be the first Museum on the East End to join the Museums for All national initiative, offering free admission to EBT cardholders.

CMEE + Long Island Head Start: Increasing Learning Outcomes for Underserved Children

Celebrating its 12th year of collaborating with Long Island Head Start, CMEE was tremendously excited to welcome back Head Start for in-person classes in September after a year of remote learning. CMEE’s effect on the over 225 families whose children have participated in Head Start at the Museum is substantial. When asked to reflect on Head Start @ CMEE—Lead Teacher, McKenna Pierson said “what makes our partnership unique is having the ability to tap into resources that wouldn’t be readily available to the vulnerable children we serve and how special it is for kids to call CMEE their school!”

East End Fund for Children: CMEE’S Deep Community Roots

Uniting with six other local nonprofits, CMEE continued the work of the East End Fund for Children (EEFC) helping more than 3,500 children in the community each week. The EEFC provides essential food, mental health support, educational programming and recreational activities for our local kids.
The Children’s Museum is grateful to the following donors for their generous support!
